

TELEPHONE MESSAGE HOLDS TWO FOR THEFT

Pair Arrested as Burglars After They Pretend to Help
Detectives.

Detectives Carlson and Andrews of the East Twenty-second street station became suspicious of two men who boarded an east bound Fourth Avenue car early this morning at Seventh Avenue, for the men carried a big parcel on which the address to a firm in Los Angeles, Cal., showed plainly. To the detectives' questions the men replied that they were expressmen. One of them said: "If you doubt us we'll prove it to you."

So the detectives accompanied them to the express office of Morris L. Rosenberg, No. 34 West Twenty-fifth street. One of the men drew a bunch of keys from his pocket and opened three locks. Inside he showed the detectives an order book showing that the package was to leave on an early train.

Still Carlson and Andrews were suspicious, and finally got Rosenberg on the telephone. He exclaimed excitedly that the men were burglars. One of them, who said he was David Weinberg, living at the Alabama Hotel, Bowery and Livingston street, had been employed by Rosenberg up to two weeks ago. After he left, Rosenberg said, many packages mysteriously disappeared at night, although in the morning the locks were all right.

Weinberg's companion said he was Joseph Weissman of No. 26 Livingston street. Both men were locked up charged with burglary.

Working for Great Strike.
LONDON, April 9.—The syndicalists are taking measures to bring about a general strike in the autumn, according to the Standard, in the weekly wage of all workers. So far, however, many responsible leaders of trade unions oppose the idea.

Unless you have been in the home where there is a Player-Piano you cannot possibly realize how much pleasure one of these instruments will give you. It enables you to play the kind of music you like best. At will you can change from the classical works of the great masters to the popular "hits" of the day. At a family musicale or when dancing the latest Tangos, Hesitations, or Maxixes, the Player-Piano is indispensable. Every member of the family can play it without any previous knowledge of music.

The Combination of A Reliable House Like "Bloomingdales"

A Reliable Piano Like the "WALTERS"
Is a Guarantee of Satisfaction

Bloomingdales' forty-one years of uninterrupted success, based upon the principle of honest and upright dealings, assures perfect protection to every purchaser of a Piano or Player-Piano here.

The "Walters" represents all that is best in Piano construction. Its tremendous popularity is due to its wonderful record of reliability. More than 38,000 satisfied owners of Walters Pianos and Player-Pianos bear out that fact.

Bloomingdale Brothers, as the sole owners of the Walters Piano Manufacturing Company, were enabled to inaugurate a factory-to-home method of selling Pianos and Player-Pianos, thus presenting to the New York public the unusual opportunity to secure instruments of established reputation at prices less the middleman's profit. This profit consists of the Dealer's, the Agent's, or the Teacher's commissions.

As manufacturing retailers, Bloomingdale Brothers were guided with but one ambition, "to build better instruments every day;" how well we are succeeding is best demonstrated by the daily increasing demand for Walters Pianos and Player-Pianos. Only instruments of merit can build up such a big piano business as ours.
